

Tools To Learn How to Use in Order to Stay Safe

By Alvin Erickson
© 2024 Adults Saving Kids

If it is too good to be true, it is most likely a lie.

Always referring back to one's identity in Christ as a child of God

Developing boundaries, claiming boundaries

Praying for wisdom, guidance, a way out.

Talking about the gift of sex with one's children

Being strong enough to say "No".

The art of choosing safe friends

Recognizing evil perpetrators and how they work

Putting on the whole armor of God

Confirming what is going on before proceeding

Not going into risky situations without a companion

Learning to notice and observe what is going on—possible danger

Valuing wisdom and not being simple-minded

Claiming God's gift of intuition, a gut feeling

Knowing how to use nonviolent responses.

Learning the art of nonviolent communication

Thinking seriously of long-term consequences and outcomes

Evil Doers and Schemers (Wolves) Attacking American Youth

Child Molesters

Bullies

Scammers

Sextortionists

Drug or Alcohol Dealers

Internet Pornographers

Defrauders

Manipulative Peers

Some Music Lyricists

Those Luring to Unsupervised Parties

Misleading Messengers

Rapists, Date Rapists

Recruiters to Get Youth to Gamble

Advertisers

Sexting Promoters

Giving Rape Drugs

Human Traffickers

Spousal abusers

Promoters of Hooking Up Culture

Producers of Fake News